Due to the nature of managing and maintaining a dove field there will be no refunds. If by chance a foreseen event such as a hurricane ect. is likely then the shoot could be called off and a shoot at a later date would be scheduled. We do everything possible to have a great shoot but weather patterns and the nature of migratory birds play a factor beyond our control.

For everyone's safety, any guest not following rules will be asked to leave the property of RoseAllen Plantation.

It is understood that guest accepts the land in an "as is" condition and further, the guest understands that hunting is dangerous activity and that there may be hidden hazards such as holes, fence wire, snakes, wells, swamps, ponds, harmful plants, unauthorized careless persons on the land, other hunters, or other risks that may injure him or cause death and the guest assumes all these risks as his own responsibility.
